

ETF Preview Talk & Theatre

Opera Mega-Stars and Singing as a Human Right!

Enjoy an introductory talk on Terence Mc Nally`s „Masterclass“ on the occasion of the Previews Febr 27th and Febr 28th 2013
6 – 7 p.m. at James the Bar

Meet Andrea Wolf, Laurie Reviol (27.2.), Amy Leverenz (28.2.) and Julia Cramer presented by: Michael Gonszar

Admission free!

The Canadian Soprano Laurie Reviol studied singing and piano in Toronto. Moreover she had a special education in the Fachbereich Historische Aufführungspraxis at the „Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst in Frankfurt.“ Laurie Reviol teaches at present at the Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst in Frankfurt and she also is a dedicated Jazz singer.

Amy Leverenz (USA) has been a singing coach for Jazz since 2002 at the „Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst Frankfurt. " As a singer and an actress I prefer joy as my companion.

Seriousness is my ally." She studied singing at the "Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst" in Vienna. She has been working as a singer and songwriter for more than 35 years in Germany and Austria. She has performed in many musicals and contemporary music projects in many theatres from Berlin to Vienna. Her own projects centered around the biographies of Capone, Kaschnitz, Mörike, Brecht and the Gershwin Brothers.

Julia Cramer is a young soprano from Houston/Texas currently living and studying in Germany. She has sung Donna Anna in Mozarts „Don Giovanni“ Jeunesses Musicale Deutschland Competition at the Oper Schloss Weikersheim.

The actress Andrea Wolf has portrayed the role of Maria Callas in Terence McNallys „Meisterklasse“ in 2012 in a special production at Schlossgut Weissenhaus directed by Heinz Kreidl.

