

The English Theatre Frankfurt

Dear Teachers,

We opened our new season with „Strangers on a Train“ and we are offering again a wide range of workshops for teachers and students. You can find teacher’s material, reviews, the trailer and photos on our webpage:

<http://www.english-theatre.de/education/workshops/>

On top, we are presenting a special workshop in cooperation with the U.S. Consulate General Frankfurt:

THE POWER OF PICTURES – A PROJECT DAY FOR TEACHERS AND STUDENTS WITH JOSH ELDER, AWARD-WINNING GRAPHIC NOVELIST

For the first we are offering a workshop on the topic: How and why to use comics in the classroom? Meet the American graphic novelist Josh Elder in October at the English Theatre. Josh has also developed methods of teaching involving the use of his picture stories. You can learn more about his special and entertaining approach by attending the events on either

14th or 15th of October 2014.
(For more information see attachment)

The day includes:

- an introductory presentation of Josh Elder’s graphic novels and comics
- a practical demonstration session with a group of students
- a special seminar for teachers

You can participate in this event

- as an individual teacher on your own or with your students
- as a group of teachers from a school

We would like to encourage you to bring your students as a test class. In this case, there will be no entrance fee for the students and the teacher. Please contact our theatre pedagogues:
